UNION COURSE.

Two troiting matches were announced to take place yesterday afternoon at the Union Course, the first being a race of two mile heats between Hiram Howe's chestnut gelding Major, in harness, and L S. Sammis' black geiding Venture, to wagon weighing 110 lbs.; and the second, mile heats, best three in five, in harness, between D. De Lay's chestnut gelding (no name), and L. S. Sammis' brown gelding, Dan. The first proved to be a contest of the most interesting nature, three heats being trotted to decide it, and then won by Major by a neck only, this advantage being secured by him in the two last strides made as they were passing under the wire. It is seldom that road horses—for such they were—cause so much interest to be attached to their contests on the turf; but this fully repaid the small assemblage that journ'yed to the track to witness it. The second race did not take place, owing to the owner of the chest-nut gelding paying forfeit.

The following gives in detail the two-mile-heat

On the Buckeye track last evening Dr. L. Herr, of Lexington, trottep in the presence of a large number of our citizens his two-year old gelding, Mambrino Bertie. The colt was shipped to this city on Monday last, taken out to the Buckeye track on yesterlay, and, although he has not eaten three quarts of oats within the three days—despite the raw, cold weather and the rough condition of the track—he made the fastest three trials ever shown by a two-year-old frotter in the world. He trotted the first mile in 2:42%, without making a single skip!

After twenty minutes' rest, without taking him out of the sulky, the colt repeated his mile, without out of the sulky, the cost repeated his mile, without a break, in 2:44½.

A ter anot er interval of twenty minutes, without any other relief than a f w swallows of water, he trotted two miles in the remarkable time of 5:29½, making the first mile in 2:41, and the second mile, with three bad breaks, in 2:43½. In all his breaks he lost time, yet his two mile heat averaged 2:44M for each mile. Such an exhibition of speed and endorance was never shown by a two-year-old trotter in America before.

Membrino Bertie is a dark brown geiding, fifteen hands and three-quarters high, finely finished in form, with as perfectly balanced trotting action as Dexter himself. He is a closely inbred Messenger, being by Dr. Herr's Mambrino Patchen, the full brother of Lady Thorn, out of his half sister, by Mambrino Bertie showed ne distress after his worth gently allowed worth Extraordinary Play by Joseph Dion-Ru-dolphe and His Matches.

The play of Joseph Dion since his arrival in San Francisco has very much disappointed such of his friends in this city as are supporting him for his match with John Deery for $1,000 a side. They may now take heart. On the 12th he woke up, the occasion being an exhibition for his benefit. Having Joseph Little for an opponent, he won a four-ball Joseph Little for an opponent, he won a four-ball game of 750 by 735, averaging 375. His first run was 202, and his next and last 548. When he quit he had the balls all in a heap, and was called upon to continue playing, but he refused to do more than was absolutely necessary to win the game. A three-ball game of 150 points followed between him and Deery. The latter made such good runs as 10, 11, 12, 13, 16 and 39, aggregating 101, but was nevertheless beaten five points. Dion's runs of double figures were 15, 27, 28 and 28. The New Yorker's stock, which before was down in San Francisco, is now at part.

which before was down in San Francisco, is now at part.

THE PIZZLING FIVE THOUSAND DOLLAR MATCH.

Cyrille Dion is patiently awaiting the return of Rudoiphe to make that much talked of match at tea per cent. He and his friends are of the opinion that Rudoiphe has been incorrectly represented in the negotiations thus far, and that, if necessary to "get in on," he will play the match on a barn door of a bagatelle table. As neither has ever played a match on those conditions, it is a logical conclusion, according to a line of argument already pursued, that a bagatelle board or a barn door would afford no advantages to either. As it is to be a match for $5,000 or $5,000, at Rudoiphe's option, and will, therefore, be uncommonly exciting, the public would prefer to see it played on a bagatelle table rather than not at all. The left handed Canuck is willing to play on any table which neither himself nor Rudoiphe has ever practised upon, or will accept the table he and Rudoiphe have always played their matches on.

The contest as to the championship match between Rudolphe and Parker conveys good news to Gothamites. Rudolphe, as is well known, desires to play in this city. Parker, who says he wants to play on a table and not through the newspapers, has authorized his representative to state, in case Rudolphe will not go to Cincunnati, that he will play him in this city December 10, upon being guaranteed actual expenses. It now depends upon Rudolphe to say whether the match is to be played in Cincinnati, New York or Buffalo. Parker can compel him to play in the last named city, and any of the different parties interested can object to the match being played elsewhere. THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

A Nice "Little Thing" in Prospect-Jem Mace Promises Joe Coburn a "Benefit." NEW YORK, Nov. 21, 1870.

To the Eptron of the Herald:After my fight with Tom Alien last spring I ar nounced publicly my intention of rearing from the ring, and have no intention of restring it. Having resorved to become a citizen of this country I have opened a house of entertainment for the benefit of my friends and the public, in which it has been my endeavor to please all and allow no rowdyism. In this I have succeeded until last Saturday evening, the luth inst., when Mr. Joseph Coburn, who styles himself the "champion of America," entered my place in an intoxicated state and committed, without the least provocation on my part, an assault upon me, To sustain the good reputation of my bouse, and acting by the advice of friends present, I refrained from indicting on him the publishment he so justly merited. The remarks of Coburn that I must fight him or leave the country are mere bragadocto. In his sover moments he will and must acknowledge I am his superior. I am not going to leave America. I intend to remain here, and the threats of Mr. Coburn are powerless to drive me from a country in which I have determined to spend the remainder of my days. If forced into fighting him I am, I think, able to satisfy his most ambitious fighting propensities.

GOLD WEAK-112% A 111%. The dealers in the Gold Room were so anxious oncerning the course of events in Europe that they made a very early appearance in that apartment this morning, and operated so promptly upon the news when received that they gave gold its extreme fluctuations long before the Board was regularly called being still the key to the situation, the announce-ment by cable that five-twenties were 37%, against 36% Saturday night, started gold on the decline, and when, a few minutes later, bonds were reported at 88 a 88% the price went down by the run from 112% to 111%. Here the shorts found so profitable an oprtunity for covering, that they began buying, and as bonds were reported to have reacted to 87% a 88, gold advanced to 111%, but fell off and hung heavily at 111% a 111%, until the Indépendance Belge was quoted as authority for a belief that "war was inevitable," when the price strengthened to 111%, the upward movement being assisted by some timidity on the part of the "shorts" when they found the cash gold so scarce that its use over night commanded a consideration ranging from two per cent per annum to 1-64 per dicm. Bonds at the close were again reported strong at 87% a 88, and gold once more fell back to 111%. The course of the FOREIGN EXCHANGE LOWER AND WEAK. The peace news, the advance in bonds in London and the better supply of commercial bills originating in the recent free shipments of produce and cotton led to a sharp decline in foreign exchange, rates falling a quarter per cent for sterling, the market closing dull and weak at the reduced quotations. The prime bankers at the close offered sixty day bills at 100% and sight at 110.

MONEY EASIER. The money market was easier and lenders made a point of endeavoring to secure an early engage-ment of their balances. The highest rate on call was six per cent, but toward the close of banking hours the rate was heavy at five per cent, while the offerings on governments at four per cent were unusually large. Discounts were steady and prime acceptances are in request at 7 a 7% per cent.

Proclamation of the Mayor. Mayor Kaibfleisch has issued the following proclamation, urging upon the citizens of Brooklyn the propriety of observing Thanksgiving Day as a general holiday:-

eral holiday:—

The President of the United States and the Governor of the State of New York having appointed Thursday, the 24th inst., as a day of thanksigiving and prayer, I recommed a general observance of the same in this city.

We have many reasons for being thankful. There have been piculful crops, and abundance prevails throughout the land. In this city the year now drawing to a close has not been saddened by any derastating disease or other great calamity, Good health and prosperity have been generally enjoyed. Therefore, let our citizens recognize the manifold blessings with which they have been surrounded by a suspension of business pursuits on Thursday, and returning thanks to the Aimighty in such manner as may to them seem proper.

MARTIN KALBFLEISCH, Mayor.

real, $835,650; total, $1,029,215 25. If soid at public auction it would probably bring considerably more than the amount of this vaination. The State is about to erect another state Prison or Reformatory at Elmira, which will cost $500,000 or $600,000. Let another on a similar plan be built at some other suitable location, and then sell Sing Sing Prison to raise the money to pay for hem. As the law under which this Elmira institution is to be built provides for sending there all convicts under thirty years of age, one such reformatory will evidently not be capacious enough, for more than half the criminals in the State are under that age. Adburn and Clinton can probably accommodate all the prisoners over thirty years of age who are co-victed of felony. By the way, it is somewhat remarkable that while Sing Sing is so anxious to get rid of the State Prison there, Elmira should have been so solicitous to secure the location of the new State prison or reformatory—as it is more euphoniously designated—in that pleasant little town.
